

Biographical Information for Campbell Harmon

Speaker biography:

Campbell Harmon has performed as Edgar Allan Poe since 2009. He has brought the Master of the Macabre to life for audiences across America. Harmon has worked with libraries, schools, and the National Endowment for the Arts to further historical education and spark a love of reading in young and old alike. In his diminishing spare time he volunteers as a performer at the Wallingford Trail of Terror, a non-profit haunted attraction benefiting local charities for 17 years. Harmon is a displaced Kentuckian and graduate of Yale Divinity School. He lives in Wallingford, Connecticut in a 105 year-old house with a 140lb dog.

Photos (web resolution):

In costume, walking: <http://i.imgur.com/aFq2G.png> (credit: Photo by Christopher Zajac of the Record Journal.)

Pencil portrait: <http://i.imgur.com/ljnB3.jpg> (credit: portrait by Steven Willits)

Speaking at podium: http://www.rottenartist.com/poe/boo_at_the_bushnell.png

Large format photos for print:

These photos must be credited: Photo by Christopher Zajac of the Record Journal.

In costume, walking, 2000px width: http://www.rottenartist.com/poe/poe_walking_2000.jpg

In costume, walking, 1000px width: http://www.rottenartist.com/poe/poe_walking_1000.jpg

In costume, walking, 500px width: http://www.rottenartist.com/poe/poe_walking_500.jpg

In costume, walking, full-body only: http://www.rottenartist.com/poe/poe_walking_cropped.jpg

In costume, head-shot: http://www.rottenartist.com/poe/poe_walking_headshot.jpg